Me And Luke

Synopsis

Audrey O'Hearn has crafted an unforgettable story about a teenager becoming a man in this book for young adults. Matt's girlfriend is having his baby and plans to give it up for adoption. And that seems like the best thing for everyone. Matt has dropped out of school, and he can't seem to find a job. His mom has moved to California, and his friends seem to have forgotten all about him. But then Luke is born, and Matt sees his newborn son, and suddenly things are very different. . .

Customer Reviews

The movie should have kept the same plot. The book brought tears to my eyes. Read the book, not the movie.

I watched the movie (A dad for Christmas) before I read this book. Overall the book is great but I like the movie a lot better.

ilove it i really love it you know what i watched this movie during the greatest downfall of my life and i always take for granted my fathers opinion but as i watched this movie it touched my heart and motivated me to restablish my relationship with my father and with my mother aswell its a great family movie oh my god i think im about to cry.
