Customer Reviews

This book is pretty much awful. Can't tell if the author was high the entire trip, or if he just tried to write a full travel journal in one afternoon. Don't waste your money.

Really informative and humorous. Great for learning about big tourist hot spots as well as hole in the walls. This guy has some crazy experiences, worth a read! I would recommend this book for anyone looking to learn about Costa Rica and Nicaragua or to someone wanting to read about adventures.

Awesome read! Very informative if you are looking to avoid main tourist areas. Also some great insider experiences on what to be careful of while traveling. I'm itching to visit Central America even more now :-)

Somewhat helpful and funny regarding Costa Rica. Way off regarding Nicaragua. Offensive and disrespectful to the Nicaraguan people. Makes us look like we are all looking to rip you off. Would not recommended.

Enjoyed this book! Definitely will recommend it to friends.

Ok

Terrible. Grammar, spelling and punctuation errors were too irritating to get past the first couple of pages. Two pages were enough, though, to realize that I absolutely wasn't missing anything by quitting. Try again, next time with an editor.

This is definitely an unique read. Very entertaining. I enjoyed the first person point of view. The uncapitalized first letters of sentences were a little bothersome; it could use some editing. I definitely will take this advice and refrain from cocaine (new moto?) in Nicaragua.-Rachel S
