This book is very offensive. Let's start with the title: "Ah, so...". Really? Then there's a number of stereotypes and ignorant words used for the sake of humor. I felt like I was reading something written in the 60s. There is a paragraph about geishas. The author comments that because of a geisha's skills as a hostess, she would be useful on a first date. Does the author not know the history of geishas? This book deserves negative stars.

I found this rather dull and simplistic for 9-12 year olds.
