Andrea Lynn graduated from New York City's Institute of Culinary Education and is now a professional chef and food writer.

While there are some legitimate recipes in here, it's more of a shopping list for things that you can make for dinner. You'll still need to cook, but it's all about making cooking really easy. And it does a great job of that! If you love Trader Joe's, this book is great whether you're in college or not.

Very disappointed in recipes

My college bound grandson seemed really pleased with this cookbook...and we through in a Gift Card from Trader Joe's so he can go grocery shopping.

Recipes for shopping at TJ only. Great graduation gift for high school seniors headed to college town with TJ store.

Perfect for my daughter's first year in a college apartment. Functional & great on the coffee table. Recipe's are simple, and easy to make. Perfect for the Trader Joe's shopper!!

Great book to give to my daughter as she heads off to college. Easy recipes with great directions for a girl who barely knows how to boil water!

Good Cookbook

What a great little cookbook. Simple, but delicious recipes with all items bought from Trader Joe's. It's awesome. I tried two of the Mexican recipes and got raves from everyone that had it. I also did a shrimp pasta recipe with three ingredients and it was terrific also! My friend was so impressed she had me order her one also.
