Book by Derstine, Gerald, Layman, Joanne

It is a very old story but still very interesting to my husband and myself. The purchase was easy and went well!Mary

This book is a testimony of revival: how God moved in a brief but very intense way in Gerald's church in Minnesota in the 1950s. Great book for everyone interested in revival or the moving of God.

Reading this book added an element to me, it is incredible to see that God can and will work through us today; if we will just give Him time and our attention. This man Gerald Derstine writes from his heart, a very simple way of life was his beginning. and to watch him grow and progress in this book. Reminds me of The Pilgrim's Progress. This a wonderful book on, faith, family and friends, knitted and held together by a loving God of order and discipline. As you read this book I know you will discover that Gerald Derstine does not have a hidden agenda, he is sharing his true life and love. And revealing to us that God is still speaking today, are we really listening.

I want to warn those that may be considering this book. I realize I have only read a few pages but it is all I need to read. This book was written in the 1950's. Look at the reports that have come out on this author below. The biblical criteria for evaluating people is by their fruit. This man's ministry and claims have been proven to be lies. See articles below. He talks about following the fire. Fire refers to judgment in the Bible not blessing. If you decide to read it use Biblical discernment.[...][...]
