Jim McLean, owner of the #1-ranked Jim McLean Golf Schools, has been rated one of the top five instructors in America for more than a decade. He has worked with more than 100 tour professionals and has written many books and DVDs, including The Golf Digest Book of Drills and The X Factor Swing. The coach of some of the game's greatest professionals, he lives in Miami, Florida.

Very much a beginners book. Many of the items included are just common sense (drink plenty of water before you play). Covers the mental aspect and offers tips and drills. Meant to be put in your golf bag as a reference guide I assume, yet offers no index or table of contents to allow for a quick on the course reference.

A good little pocketbook on how to putt. Nothing special but a nice book to have in your pocket whilst practicing.
