Customer Reviews

A Connecticut Christmas is a sentimental journey through the lore of Connecticut and makes you want to sing Irving Berlin's "White Christmas." The beautiful pictures celebrate the marvelous diversity, beauty, and spirit of the Nutmeg State. From churches, festivals and town greens to private homes, farms, and barns, this heartwarming book makes you smile. (Jacques Ppin, award-winning French chef, television personality, and author)

Caryn B. Davis began her career in the visual arts 30 years ago as a camera person, editor, and producer of documentaries. She has been a professional photographer since 2000, specializing in architectural photography. Her work has taken her to over 50 countries, and still counting! She often combines her images with words to create compelling articles that have been featured in more than 60 magazines.
