My 7 year old loves the "Magic Tree House" Series. We are trying to teach our sons survivalist skills early, and this is a fun way to get him interested in them. After reading about setting up wood for fires he went outside and built an impressive stack. He loves learning about other topics like how to find water and how to fall properly to reduce the chance of injury as well.

Our independent reading 1st grader loves this book. Would recommend for any kid that's into adventuring and the great outdoors. Has a lot of fun facts too that would appeal to budding scientists. Great idea! Compass is cheap though and I would not use it for realies.

My children enjoyed this book. They would talk about what survival techniques they learned from this book.

very satisfy

My son (7yrs) loves this book. He brings it everywhere we go! I love how excited he gets about reading this book and tell his friends about it.

Love that Mary Pope Osborne is offering these extra books for the kids--they love her stuff! A perfect gift for your kids or someone else's!

Excellent book for my 9 year old son. He asked for it after seeing it in the school library. I couldn't be happier with it. Love furthering his love of reading.

My daughter loves this book. She tells me about the things she's learned.
