YA-What could be more American than a 1957 Chevrolet Bel Air? Along with hula hoops, drive-in movies and rock 'n' roll, it's become a '50s icon. The Bel Air is just one of 60 cars featured here. Take the wheel of a Mustang, cruise around in a Lincoln convertible, or roll down a country road in a '69 Vette. This book justifiably treats each engineering masterpiece as a work of art, paying homage with full-color photographs on thick glossy paper. Automotive aficionados will appreciate the historical, technical, and design trivia presented for each car. Young adults who like old cars or are in the process of getting their first wheels will get thoroughly revved up over this book. Copyright 1998 Reed Business Information, Inc.

My partner, who has Alzheimer's, loves to look at the pictures of the old cars in this book. I had originally checked it out of the local library and he loved it so much I bought him a copy. Great price and fast shipping.

Beautiful book, perfectly packaged. Purchased as a gift for my Boss who owns a '47 Cadillac and '51 Mercury. For the man that "seems like he has everything", he couldn't have been more pleased.

A Piece of history for people classic cars fans.

Beautiful book. The photos of the classic cars are wonderful ! I could spend hours looking at this book...it is a walk down memory lane. I know any classic car lover would enjoy this book ! DK books never disappoint !

Fabulous photographs and great looking cars made a hit with one car-aware son and His two young sons. You must buy this book if you find yourself driving a 4 year old to pre-school and he is chanting all the makes of the cars coming at you with special excitement saved for the Mustang GT!

The best book I've seen on the topic of cars - it covers the entire history with countless pictures of the various models - I highly recommend it to any car lover.

Beautiful book. I really enjoyed looking at the beautiful cars, lots of memories.If you are from this era I highly recommend this book.This book is a keeper, if you are not from this era you will still love looking at the beautiful photos and reading the information about the cars.

okay! If you can only afford one book on post-World War II American cars, this is the one for you!
Worth buying it!!!
