Customer Reviews

When I read this to my 3 1/2 year old grandson a few weeks ago, he loved it immediately. I think he said, "I want to hear that again!" 11 times and of course I obliged. I supplement the story by explaining some of what is going on....asking Gabe what the facial expressions were telling him...what the little tornado over the heads of the characters mean. We talked about what each picture was telling us about what was going on. I also alter my voice for each character and raise the volume accordingly! I hadn't read it to him in several weeks. When I arrived to babysit for him last evening he was wired. I saw the book and picked it up. He came right over and sat quietly next to me as I read it and once more I heard, "Again!"

The Chair book! As I posted on one of the others, my daughter loves these. We read them not every night anymore, but often enough. Good lessons, good art, and short. I highly recommend them.

It's okay, there is a funny image that makes my daughter laugh, but it's pretty simple. I think this is better suited for younger children and would be better as a board book.

Wonderful book for kids OR adults, teaching Life-lessons!

We actually stumbled across this at our local library and my kid was so in love with it she kept rechecking it out. So I just got it for her bday!

Beautifully illustrated, and the kids love them.

I buy LOTS of books for my great nephew (1 year old). His mother is a great reader and Ben loves all the books!
