Barbara Shook Hazen, a former editor at Golden Books, is the author of more than 80 books for young readers, including the popular Little Golden Book The Please and Thank You Book. She lives in Massachusetts and in New York City. Mircea Catusanu (pronounced Meer-cha Catoo-sha-noo) grew up in Romania and now lives with his wife and daughter in New York City.

This book has just the right amount of detail for my Kindergarten Sunday school class. It mentions that Noah's family (3 sons and their wives) were on the Ark as well as Noah and his wife! It also mentions that the raven was the first bird Noah sent out to search for land and explains what the raven's and dove's behavior meant. Many versions of Noah's story don't tell of these events. I absolutely LOVE this book.

These are far better than I expected! Very well made. Especially for this price. I was expecting a much lower quality. Thank you!

Our Church had a book drive for elementary age children in our State. This is one of the books I purchased for the drive. Our small Church collected over 1000 books. We are thinking of starting a reading program with a school this fall, so will be ordering more books. As I went through books, I just loved this one.

I grew up on the golden books and I had to buy it for my grandbaby. Thank you.

It's a classic story with cute illustrations. My 2 1/2 year old daughter loves talking about Noah and his animals and how awesome God's promise is because as a reminder he gave us such a beautiful rainbow. Good translation of the biblical story without silly additions except a cute rhyme in the middle of the book.

Excellent for my grandchild! Loves to read! Great price too!

Great little book for children!!

very good value. Story was true to bible and art work is good as Golden book always is. You don't get famous artists for the price of Golden book. I think it is a wonderful value.
