Customer Reviews

I was debating between Iceland and Latvia/Lithuania as one of the stops of my Scandinavia trip this Fall and had high hopes for this book to help me find out if there's much to see in these two countries. Though the table of contents in the free sample is enticing, the real contents of the book after I bought it are disappointing. It seems a compilation of information hastily clipped elsewhere and is nothing like the Rick Steves Europe travel books that I am used to reading. Not much information about the major sights to see, nor the practical information for a first time tourist, about the open hours, transportation, etc. Though it only costs three bucks, it's three bucks that I'll never see.

Very good!
