Synopsis

Amber and Betty are as close as any daughter and mother could possibly be. With her mother's sight failing, they are faced with the real possibility of losing their home. Betty agrees to move to Florida to live with her sister, but only if she knows her daughter is taken care of. With no other options, Amber answers an ad to become a mail order bride. Customer Reviews

I love reading this story of 2 shy people try to find. I was crying while reading and at times I could hardly see the words.

I gave this story only three stars as I enjoyed James and Ambers story to find themselves a little slow.

However, in book 1 Grace`s baby is a girl named Hope and in book 2 , she becomes a he named Jonny. MISS McCloud , please be more aware of little things like that. Otherwise, I really enjoyed the story

As always this is a clean, interesting book. I can recommend it for any age readers. Love the Mail Order Bride books.

Mail Order Brides was so common then and my interest has waned. This entire family is MOB or no Brides.

Thank you for all your books, I read everything, I really enjoyed a bride for James and also bride for Joshua. Can't wait for more.
