Barron's AP World History Flash Cards

Synopsis

This boxed set of flash cards has been revised and updated to reflect the most recent changes in the AP World History curriculum. Each card presents a history topic on its front, with key information listed on the reverse side. Cards are divided into six major historical eras: Time Immemorial to 600 C.E., 600 to 1450, 1450 to 1750, 1750 to 1900, and 1900 to the present day. Each topic is also assigned one of six categories, further enabling students to arrange them in any order that suits their needs. Activity cards are included that show teachers and students how to use flash cards for group study, which can include games, discussion, or map review. Students preparing for the Advanced Placement Exam can also use these cards effectively in tandem with Barron's AP World History test prep manual. Students can use the enclosed metal ring to arrange select cards for study on the go. Each card has a small corner punch hole to accommodate the ring.

Customer Reviews

These cards have everything! First of all, there are SO many. Second, each card has so much information, including connections to other cards. Also, there are cards that give examples of ways to use the cards to study, including games that were great for study groups. These cards are DEFINITELY worth your money. I wish I had bought them earlier in the year to help me, instead of just a month before the AP exam. History is my worst subject, and I have trouble retaining historical information, but with these cards, I'm remembering so much more!

I would definitely recommend this to anyone taking the AP World History exam. I wouldn't necessarily call these flash cards as they have so much on them but they are great. I bought them about a month before the exam but I wish I would have bought them in the beginning of the year to help with the entire course as well. Even though these cards have everything on them, I would still recommend using them in conjunction with the review book and not instead of it. These cards are worth the money to anyone studying AP World History.

The cards are laminated cardstock, durable. Each card is hole punch and the set comes with a metal ring. The information is great. They are easy to read and use. I have almost every set of AP World History review card set available. This set is my favorite. I am a AP World History teacher and this set easily stands up to student abuse.

I bought both the flashcards and the Barron's book, and by far the flashcards were much more helpful because I procrastinated studying and didn't have enough time to read the book. If you plan on using both and giving yourself enough time, buy them together. If you need a convenient and easily understandable study tool, I definitely recommend the flashcards.

Not really flashcards, they are more like review cards often with MANY MANY sentences on each card, you're better off to re read your chapters and take notes

Has an index in the front, cards have "chapters" as well. Great illustrations! Cards somewhat durable. Also includes a ring, if you need to only study specific cards.

Bought this for my younger sister who's taking this class now in high school. Even though she has not taken the AP test these cards and the book has helped her tons for the in class tests. I would recommend this for anyone taking this class.

Felt the cards helped me on the test to review all the information. There was nothing I didn't like. These cards would be valuable for anyone in the class or taking the AP test
