I love this lesson, good for young children and even adults. I am using this lesson in my homeschool classroom for my kindergartener

This book is just weird. It seems to be a totally messed up book. Id like my money back. The first 18 pages are the text I expected.... "The Armour of God" by DeBezenac Then it launches into another 18 pages of a book called "The Redo Roo" by Cindy R Lee, a totally random and off topic story about a unruly kangaroo in a classroom setting. If that werent bad enough, the print on the pages is off too...text is cut off at the top & bottom of each page. Then it goes back to a exact REPEAT of The Armour of God" by DeBezenac Next a couple of completely BLANK pages..... Then a REPEAT of part of "The Redo Roo" Then it goes back to scattered pages from "The Armour of God". Very sad. When I opened the shipping package and saw the book I was impressed. It was a lot thicker book than I expected. Didnt look at it closely until today. Dont want to pay to return it myself....dont want to leave bad feedback. Please let me know how you will resolve the issue. ~ Thank you.

Just what i was looking for to go with the armoured bear i got for a baby shower. The Mother loved it. Beautifully illustrated and best book i came across explaining the whole armour of God.

I probably like this one a little more than my son but he does like putting on the armor. And I know that He does learn about God because He always talks about how no body can defeat God.

excellent book , excellent quality , written where children understand the Armor of God . Great teaching tool

My 4 year old granddaughter loves this book.

Very cute story for my son in Kindergarten.

Great story for kids to learn about the armor of God!
