Virginia Beach to guide you.

Virginia Beach can be a bit overwhelming and this book made my trip less stressful. I didn't actually walk any of the suggested walks, but did see many of the sights highlighted in this book. This little book is packed full of information. It's arranged in a logical manner and it's inexpensive. What more can you ask for?

When I first moved to Virginia Beach, I got this book to help me get familiar with the area. I found some really cool places to visit (like Colonial Williamsburg) that were just in my backyard. It is very informative.

As a resident of Virginia Beach I found new insight into the area. This informative guide is packed with history, information on natural resources and local trivia. I was not surprised to see Jackson's credentials. She knows her stuff! Congratulations Virginia Beach!

a great manual for a insider's look at a otherwise typical beach resort. the author shows you how with a little foot work you can visit first hand things that have a little more significance than a tacky t-shirt shop.
