French Style With Vintage Finds

Synopsis

Step into lovely French homes and shops for inspiration and enchanting ideas. Heirloom antiques and charming villages create a memorable journey throughout the pages of this book. Serene color palettes andÂ timeless retreats provide an abundance of decorating inspiration and dreams of the countryside. Gorgeous photography throughout will inspire your heart to make lifelong dreams come true. French Style with Vintage Finds features ten charming homes inspired by the beauty and romance of France, each with their own distinctive style and pieces that evoke a Gallic ambience. Louis XVI chairs in just the right place, an aged clock, or a distressed mirror above a table made from salvage ironwork can bring the history and splendor of France to your home. As the worldÃ¢â„¢s top tourist destination, there are many antique markets and brocantes in France specializing in everything home and garden just waiting to be explored. They are a way of life for the French. These beautiful villages and markets are captured in full color photography and appear alongside commentary from the experts. From architectural salvage and antique canvases to kitchen jars and jewelry, this book will satisfy the passions of those seeking a part of this timeless culture.

Love the book.

Did not care much for this book. I thought it probably wasn't worth the excellent reviews others have given it but obviously that does not mean that we all think the same. This is a book you will have to leaf through on your own and decide...

This is a very thick nice Book, well put together, just not at all The "French Style" that I love. Its very Rustic old French ,plain mostly Country,not the Higher end French Decorating. I was so excited about this Book, but felt so let down by it, am actually going to give it away.

Not what I expected, too much info re flea markets and not enough about actual use of finds.

Mostly a copy of the earlier book

Beautiful book! This is one that you will look at and read again and again! Well worth its cost.
