Chill Out Guide To Colorado: Tips From A Native

Synopsis

Whether you are coming to visit Colorado, relocate or already live here, Chill Out Guide to Colorado: Tips from a Native offers an easy, fun way to navigate the state's many attributes. Best known for majestic mountains and champagne powder, Colorado is a playground for nature enthusiasts. Yet there is so much more to do and see. Get the insider's scoop delivered as vital facts, intriguing lists, personal stories, and even a delicious traditional recipe. As a native, Lynette Chilcoat shares pointers so the reader can fully enjoy the unforgettable Colorado experience, as if they, too, were born here. A fan of leisure pastimes, the author likes to camp, lake kayak, hike and snowshoe, or simply chill out with a craft brew in hand. Drawing from these statewide experiences, it is with wry wit she entertains and informs while lending practical advice. Need to understand the proper way to interact with wildlife? Begin at tip #1. Flummoxed by Colorado's bizarre weather? You're not alone! Look to Tip #2. Craving a fun time at a festival? Several are suggested at the end of Tip #3. Want to know local sports teams to root for? Tip #5 covers the basics.

Lynette Chilcoat is a Colorado native originally from Denver, who has since lived in many locales throughout the state, thus giving her distinctive insight into the nuances of the native Colorado mindset. A freelance writer, she has written for Trailer Life, Colorado Life, Style, NoCo Wellness, Rocky Mountain Spirit, Bella Spark and Regenerate magazines, as well as contributing regular features to the Loveland Reporter-Herald, Johnstown Breeze and Durango Telegraph newspapers. She lives with her husband in Loveland, Colorado.

I bought this for my sister who is coming to Colorado in June. As I read though Chill Out Guide to Colorado, I realized that there are still many beautiful destinations I have yet to see, and I've lived here for years. Filled with valuable information, where-to-do and what-to-see suggestions, and quirky humor, this is a perfect guide book for first time visitors and residents alike!

Very much enjoyed this book! We have lived in Colorado for many, many years but many of Lynette's suggestions and ideas made us see familiar (and not so familiar!) places and ideas with different eyes and a desire to explore. There are many, many good suggestions in this book and lots of humor! As for the chili, my husband can vouch for how good it is too!

Take an entertaining virtual tour of Colorado, plan your next outing and entice friends to visit. L.L. Chilcoat's book is a blend of travel advice, humor and personal testimonies. The chicken chili recipe is a winner too!

Easy to read with some very practical tips. Author has a sense of humor which is nice. I would have liked her to share more of her favorite spots; she has some great inside information.

If you're planning your first Colorado trip, start here. It's a short, delightful read, by an author with a great Colorado sense of humor.

It's a little thin. I wouldn't really call this a book-more like a longish pamphlet. What I've read so far hasn't really knocked me off my feet.
