Customer Reviews

I'm so glad I got this refreshing book before taking my fourth trip to Warsaw this coming August. Especially fine are the reviews of eating places, without any mention of the usual tourist traps. If you only buy one guide on Warsaw, let it be this one.

Extremely dated work. Swindells is well known in the Warsaw expat community for being critical of all things Polish. He is also a well known Internet troll whom I had to persuade local Poles not to thrash for his repeated insults. (There is a good reason that his picture will not be published.) I am very surprised that the publisher hired him as a review writer.
