Synopsis

'Akkāj The Early Years 1868-77 From behind the walls of the Most Great Prison, Bah'í'u'lláh addressed His majestic summons to the rulers of the world. Here he submitted to the tragic death of His beloved son, Mā-rzāj Mihdā-, the Purest Branch, and here, in the house of 'Udā- Khammāj He revealed His Most Holy Book, the Kitāb-i-Aqdas. In this long-awaited third volume of his survey of the Writings of Bah'í'u'lláh, Adib Taherzadeh gives us new and fascinating insights into the works revealed during, and the events of, this period. Five chapters alone are devoted to the themes of the Kitāb-i-Aqdas, while other important works examined include the Sā'riy-i-Haykal, the Tablets to the kings and rulers, the Lawh-i-Fu'ad and the Fire Tablet. And then there are the heart-warming stories of Bah'í'u'lláh and His Family, of His companions, of His exile and of those who came as pilgrims, the stories of Badā-', of Mā-rzāj Abu'l-Fadl, of Hājġ- Amā-n . . . and much, much more.

Mr. Taherzadeh was one of the few brilliant Baha'í scholars to live on this planet. For those Baha'is or seekers who wish to deepen their understanding of why God has given we human beings the Greatest Gift, the Manifestation of God, all 4 volumes of "The Revelation of Baha'ullah" are most excellent sources to benefit from serious study. All of the Divine Prophets: Adam, Abraham, Krishna, Zoroaster, Moses, Buddha, Jesus,, Mohammed, Bab, and, most recently, Baha'u'llah. Baha'u'llah was born in 1817, so this October, we Baha'is will be celebrating His 200th birthday. We wish to share His divine (not man made) scripture with all of the people inhabiting this world. He made the stupendous claim that He was Promised One of all religions. All we ask is of our Friends, is to investigate, independently, to determine for themselves the truth. We Baha'is are searching for souls who wish to advance themselves spiritually, and contribute to the betterment of all of the peoples on the planet. Bahai.org is also a great source for study. The Baha'i writings have all the answers to life's great questions. May your Angel Guides and your spiritual dreams lead you to Baha'u'llah!! bahaisoo@yahoo.com; (954) 773 7113

Outstanding and fascinating book on the message of Baha'u'llah, revealer of God's message to humankind for this age. Important reading for all seekers of truth, not just for Baha'is.

This is one of the finest books in existence about the Writings of Baha'u'llah. It is probably more for the scholarly type and definitely for someone who is deeply interested in the Writings of Baha'u'llah, when and where each was written, and many events surrounding the times in which He wrote.

It's a beautiful and inspiring book. It talks about the life of Baha'u'llah, but also raises many other relevant topics.

This four volume set is invaluable to have on Kindle making it possible to carry wherever one goes. There are so many wonderful stories and such a rich history of the Baha'i Faith. I keep checking daily for Volume 4. I hope it comes to Kindle soon. Thank you.

This series is not just for those who are interested in Baha'ullah. It helps those in the west to understand the culture of the Middle East. There are insights into the Islamic attitudes to others (Bahais, Christians, foreigners), to women, to modern western thought, or those in their midst that have new ideas.

Mind blowing.

Eminently readable and insightful telling of the remarkable events and the believers during the formative years of the Baha'i Faith.
