Moon Take A Hike Minneapolis And St. Paul: Hikes Within Two Hours Of The Twin Cities (Moon Outdoors)

Synopsis

The landscape of Minneapolis and St. Paul is a mix of lakes, rivers, expansive wetlands, evergreen forests, and grassy prairies. Because of the abundance of scenery around the city, hiking in the Twin Cities is more than just a trek around the town. Hiking enthusiast and local Jake Kulju shows you the best hikes in and around Minneapolis and St. Paul. All hikes within the guide take less than 2 hours to reach by car, with details on public transportation options and clear directions on how to reach the trailhead. Jake has compiled lists of his favorite hikes, including: Best River Hikes Best Lake Hikes Best Historical Hikes Best Hikes for Families Best Metro Hikes Best Nature and Wildlife Hikes Let Jake show you all the worthwhile hikes, from short, flat routes suitable for families to the more advanced hikes. Each hike profile contains practical information including point-by-point trail navigation, contact information, facilities, fees, parking instructions, and an easy-to-use map for each trail. From abundant lakes to bluff country, evergreen forests, and lowland areas, your trip begins with Moon Take a Hike Minneapolis & St. Paul.

Customer Reviews

Overall this is a great book to give the reader an idea of where to go in and around The Twin Cities for hikes and simple nature walks. The only reason I might not recommend it is because since the book's publication, there is now a new Light Rail Line running East-West to/from St. Paul, which opens up all kinds of new possible ways to get to some of the recommended trails. Nevertheless, it's a good book that reminds me of all the great hikes and walks that do exist around the Twin Cities. A more updated version would be better to have though, for the above stated reason.

The book is very accurate in all details on all the hikes I've taken in this book. I copy pages from the book on the hikes I go on. The maps of the trails from the book are accurate and I have yet to find an inaccuracy.

My day trip go to guide! Love the detailed descriptions!!

Great service.....great book!
