Treasury Of Flower Designs For Artists, Embroiderers And Craftsmen (Dover Pictorial Archive)

Synopsis

Susan Gaber's garden is a black-and-white Eden of lush flower design. • 100 graceful, botanically accurate garden flowers rendered for artists and anyone who admires or needs floral designs and motifs: needleworkers, craftsmen of all sorts, designers. All the drawings may be used royalty-free. Ms. Gaber has drawn these flowers with sinuously weaving leaves and stems, flowing and swaying as in a breeze on the page, in compositions suitable for design purposes: some of the flowers appear several times, and many of the drawings form frames, repeating borders, and motifs. The flowers, many full-page, include African Violet, Begonia, Orchid Cactus, Columbine, Daffodil, Dogwood, Iris, Peony, Snapdragon, Tobacco, and much more.

This was a great resource for learning a ton of new flower designs. This has plenty of flowers to choose from. It does not include step-by-step designs, but I knew that going in. This is excellent for giving a budding artist (like me) the basic lines to review and reproduce.

Such amazing illustrations - perfect for young artists. Highly recommend!

Filled with good illustrations of flowers. The illustrations are shown with dot shading to give the flowers dimension.

somewhat useful

I would recommend this book for anyone looking for good flower designs for arts and crafts, I will use it to develop abstracts and watercolors.

I love this book!! there are so many flowers to be used for canvas, ceramic or wood pieces. Watercolor, acrylic, or pen&ink. I know I'm going to get lots of artistic value out of this book. One of the best buys I have made.

As the name says "treasury" is exactly what this is. I have found many uses for it already in my textile work. Such as rug hooking. The designs as well as the many choices of flowers make this a must have for any artist or crafter or even just to use as a color book.
