Customer Reviews

Frank E. Peretti is a natural storyteller who, as a youngster in Seattle, regularly gathered the neighborhood children for animated storytelling sessions. Frank's adult and children's novels combined have now sold more than 5.2 million copies. Frank and his wife, Barbara Jean, live in the Northwest, where they enjoy fishing, bluegrass music, bicycling, and hiking.

As a fan of all the other Cooper Kids Adventures books, I eagerly began to read this book. I had no idea that it would so intensely demand my attention. I practically inhaled every word that Frank Peretti wrote, turning each page as my anxiety mounted. Mr. Peretti has again woven a masterful tale full of action, suspense, and intensity. I would definitely recommend this book for middle school and high school aged students who are looking for a great book to keep them busy on a dull summer day. But be warned! You will NOT want to put this book down! My only problem with the Cooper Kids Adventures is that the books are too short. I devour each book in about a day, partly because they are so captivating and partly because they are so brief. Thank you again, Mr. Peretti! I have already read this book twice and will probably be reading it again in the near future.

Best present

My grandson (a precocious 8 yer old) loves this whole series. It was a "I must have it" for him and he could hardly wait until we read it all,,,,, and then got the next in the series.

This is a pretty far-fetched story (I mean really, flying poisonous slugs?!) but a lot of fun. A good Christian-themed novel.

My 11 year old really enjoyed the whole series.

This was my favorite series growing up, and I love that I can share in this experience with my children now! These books are amazing and subtly bring God in so the kids don't think they are reading the Bible, but they pick up on key elements of the Gospel!

Daughter loves these books

Coollest book in the series!
