Customer Reviews

Another great Sabrina Daley mystery. When a prominent member of Treasure Cove is found murdered in his office, Sabrina and her detective boyfriend, David, set out to solve the murder. The list of suspects is endless. This is a good cozy mystery to read -- a little mystery, romance, comedy and suspense to keep you guessing.

This book was a quick and fun read, No blood and guts or violence in a y from and not woman porn. It certainly is not in the sAme fiber as Agatha Christie, but a fun read and I didn't,t guess who funniest until she told us I will read more of these books by this author a qui k and funreaf

I hope book 5 comes out soon. Once I start a series it irrates me when I can't find out what happens next. It is a good clean read. I like the fact that there is no sex between the title characters

This book was very annoying there are many secret societies like the masons etc so why as there so much fuss over this one, also David is so unbelievable I don't think any law officer would carry o like he does. I am sorry I can not read anymore of these books as they annoy me.Sorry.

Lemon Bars And A Side Of MurderThe series is good and I enjoyed the characters.I'm trying to locate book 5 Cookies with a side of murder, please tell me how to find it???
