I wrote this book when my wife, who is the children's director of our church, began interviewing kids who wanted to be baptized. She couldn't find a book that would explain baptism from an Evangelical Christian perspective for children. This book aims explain baptism in a way an eight-year old could understand. The cartoon illustrations also make the book a fun read.

Kevin Spear is an author and illustrator. His cartoons have appeared in magazines such as Leadership Journal. His illustrations have appeared in The Complete Idiot's Guide series for Alpha Books as well as various activity books for Warner Press.

Was challenged as a novice deaconess to teach a class on Baptism. This teacher's guide came right on time and touches on all the areas I'm concerned with right now as my first class consisted of 3 9 year old boys and I have yet another tomorrow. God bless you brother Spear.

Very useful when ministering to children and explaining those complicated issues of the church.

Well done and interesting for the children.
