Billy's Big Day

Synopsis

Billy Dawson is a new born Christian. He is also a sixth grader who wants to help his class win a trip to Disneyland. He is often torn between his pride and humility, and continually asks himself, What would Jesus do? Billy has to deal with sibling rivalry, neighborhood bullies, and the dilemma of whether he should serve himself or his classmates. Billy learns that being a hero comes from helping others, even if his ego is bruised in the process. He also learns that there is more to music than country hoedowns, and that sometimes you may have to fight to protect the ones you love, even if it is your older sister. Billy comes to appreciate that if he puts his trust in Jesus, sets aside personal ambition, and tries to help others, all will be well. Maybe not the way he expected, but even better.
